SKETCH OF THE LIFE OF LYDIA E. PINKHAM

And a True Story of How the Vegetable Compound Had Its Birth and How the "Panic of '73" Caused it to be Offered for Public Sale in Drug Stores.

This remarkable woman, whose maiden name was Estes, was born in Lynn, Mass., February 9th, 1819, coming from a good old Quaker family. For some years she taught school, and women of the whole world. became known as a woman of an alert and investigating mind, an earnest

In 1843 she married Isaac Pinkham, uilder and real estate operator, and their early married life was marked by prosperity and happiness. They had four children, three sons and a daughter.

In those good old fashioned days it was common for mothers to make herself. their own home medicines from roots urgent cases. derful knowledge of the curative properties of the various roots and herbs.

Pinkham continues this great work, and probably from the office of no other person have so many women been advised how to regain health. Sick women, this advice is "Yours for Health" freely given if you only write to ask for it.

The Pinkhams had no money, and little credit. Their first laboratory was the kitchen, where roots and herbs were steeped on the stove, gradually filling a gross of bottles. Then came the question of selling it, for always before they had given it away freely. They hired a job printer to run off some pamphlets setting forth the merits of the medi-cine, now called Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and these were distributed by the Pini ham sons in Boston, New York, and Brooklyn.

The wonderful curative properties of the medicine were, to a great extent, self-advertising, for whoever used it recommended it to others, and the demand gradually increased.

In 1877, by combined efforts the family had saved enough money to commence pewspaper advertising and from that time the growth and success of the enterprise were assured, until today Lydia E Pinkham and her Vegeseeker after knowledge, and above table Compound have become house-hold words everywhere, and many thetic nature. tons of roots and herbs are used annually in its manufacture.

Lydia E. Pinkham herself did not live to see the great success of this work. She passed to her reward years ago, but not till she had provided means for continuing her work as effectively as she could have done it

Wild Rush is Now on for the Lates Sensational Gold Discovery In Great Wealth Producing State.

Goldfield, Nev.-For the fourth time within five years a great mining excitement has come to southern Ne vada. A phenomenal rush to Manhattan, an entirely new camp, has set in. This camp is about forty miles north and a little east of Tonopah, in Nye county. There are two wagon roads leading to it. One is known as the Rye Patch road, which is forty-six miles long and fair traveling for light loads; the other is known as the San Antonio road, and is ten miles longer, but better suited for heavy loads. Both roads just now present a remarkable picture, for scenes are being enacted which seem possible nowhere else but in Nevada. The miners and prospectors of the Rockies and Sierra Nevadas are on a rush to a new and wonderful gold discovery. It will surprise many to learn that Lid is on in Salt Lake.

Salt Lake City.—By order of Mayor Ezra Thompson gambling in Salt Lake was closed Tuesday night.

The closing of the games was ac complished without disorder and without arrests. Mayor Thompson issued his flat to Chief of Police George A. Sheets during the afternoon, and shortly before 9 o'clock last evening the chief detailed Detectives Richard L. Shannon and George Raleigh to nothat it was enforced. Within a few minutes they had visited the open gambling houses, and the proprietors of the latter had obeyed the order.

Lineman Slipped and Grasped Live Wire.

Vancouver, B. C .- William Burgess, a lineman employed by the British Columbia Electric Rallway company, was electrocuted while at work at the corner of Powell street and Dunlevy avenue. He was soldering joints on a transformer at the top of a high pole. It is supposed he slipped and, to save himself from falling, grasped a wire carrying a heavy current and received the entire charge through his body, killing him.

Street Duel to the Death.

Durango, Colo.-Sheriff W. J. Thompson of La Plata county and Policeman Jesse Stensel of this city, exchanged a dozen shots with revolvers on the main street here Tuesday, and both were mortally wounded. Thompson died this afternoon. There had existed a feud between the two men since the late election, when they were both candidates for the office of Sheriff Thompson had resided in Durango for twenty years.

Glass Factory for Salt Lake. Salt Lake City.-Glass made in Salt Lake City will be on the market within a year, according to predictions made by officials of the Manufacturers & Merchants' association. The outlook is certainly bright for the establishment of a glass factory in this city. A manufacturer with pienty of money is in communication with the association with a view to investing extensively in the industry. He has written for samples of sand and cost of freighting it to Salt Lake.

Eight Lives Lost by Suffocation or Jumping From the Windows.

Heroic Work of Firemen, One of Whom Lost His Life in Saving an Aged Woman From Death in the Flery Furnace.

Minneapolis.—Eight persons are dead from suffocation or from leaping from windows, and a score of people were more or less injured, as the result of a fire in the West hotel early Wednesday morning.

The fire, which is supposed to have been caused by crossed electric wires, was in itself insignificant, being confined to the elevator shaft and tor floor in the corner of the building, but the wild excitement which followed the first alarm hurried people into the halls and out upon window ledges in a frantic attempt to save them-

Captain John Berwin, who lost his life in saving the life of Mrs. B. D. suddenly, within the last week, the Barlow of Los Angeles, was one of the first of the firemen to climb into the est settlement felt the effect first burning building. Ascending to the seventh floor on a scaling ladder, he there started. Then Goldfield caught stumbled upon the unconscious form the fever, and now the whole south of Mrs. Barlow. The aged woman ern part of the state has risen and had groped her way to the stairway

Strapping the limp body to his back, Berwin pushed out onto the window ledge to carry his burden down the ladder. Between the seventh and the new fields from Goldfield alone at sixth floors the strap broke. Bending over to balance the body of the woman a moment the fireman leaned by those anxious to reach the camp in forward at the risk of his life and, gathering himself for a supreme effort, hurled the weman toward a projecting ledge on the floor below.

Mrs. Barlow had been revived by the cold air, and she grasped the projection and held on. In making the throw Captain Berwin lost his balance and was dashed to his death on the pavement below. Mrs. Barlow was rescued by another fireman.

AFTER FIREBUGS.

Citizens Up In Arms Over Repeated Attempts to Burn Town.

Canon City, Colo.-The attempt Wednesday night to fire the big zinc smelter here, a $2,000,000 plant, makes the fifteenth attempt at incendiarism in Canon City in the past two weeks, and convinces the citizens that an organized gang of firebugs is trying to burn the town. Three men smelter and were fired upon guards, but escaped.

The town is up in arms, and patrols of citizens and hired guards are on duty nightly. Electric lights have been strung through alleys and in outlying districts to aid in guarding prop-

Idaho Senator Receives Anonymous Letters Threatening His Life.

Washington.-It is learned that Senator Heyburn of Idaho has been receiving anonymous letters threatening his life, which bore an Idaho postmark. Congressman John C. Chaney of Indiana, who was attorney for Governor Steunenberg when he appeared before a congressional investigation committee, has also been threatened in the same manner. Neither paid much attention to the missive until after the assassination of Governor Steunenberg.

Dr. William R. Harper Dead.

Chicago.-Dr. William Rainey Harper, president of the University of Chicago, and one of the world's greatest authorities on Hebrew and Sanskrit, died at his home here Wednesday afternoon of cancer. Dr. Harper has for two years been suffering from a cancer located at the head of the large intestines. It was discovered when he underwent an operation for appendicitis, but it was believed the disorder would at the time be relieved by special treatment, but every effort to relieve his sufferings failed.

Treating Wrong Disease.

Many times women call on their family physicians, suffering, as they imagine, one from dyspepsia, another from heart disease, another from liver or kidney disease, another from nervous exhaustion or prestration, another with pain here and there, and in this way they all present alike to themselves and their easy-going and indifferent, or over-busy doctor, separate and distinct diseases, for which he, assuming them to be such, prescribes his pills and potions. In reality, they are all only symptoms caused by some uterine itsease. The physician, ignorant of the cause of suffering, encourages this practice until large bills are made. The suffering patient gets no better, but prohably worse, by reason of the delay, serong treatment and consequent compileations. A proper medicine like Br. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, directed to the cause would have entirely removed, the disease, thereby dispelling all those distressing symptoms, and instituting comfort instead of prolonged misery. It has been well said, that "a disease known is half cured."

well said, that "a disease known is half cured."

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a scientific medicine, carefully devised by an experienced and skillful physician, and adapted to woman's delicate system. It is made of native medicinal roets and is perfectly harmiess in its effects in any condition of the system.

As a powerful invigorating tonic "Favorite Prescription" imparts strength to the whole system and to the organs distinctly feminine in particular. For overworked, "worn-out." "run-down," debilitated teachers, milliners, dressmalters, scamstresses, "shop girls," house keepers, nursing mothers, and feeble women generally, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the greatest earthly boon, being unequaled as an appetizing cordial and restorative tonic.

Songe That Have Won Favor.

The intensely popular song is not the only one which it is very profitable to write. Among the most successful of better-class songs may be mentioned "Violets" and "Ob Bry Those Tears." The manuscript of the former was offered to and rejected by nearly all the principal publishers in London before it was eventually accepted and printed. It speedily won its way to favor, and its sale has been both large and regular ever since.

of Bible Verses.

The pastor of a church in a Jersey town wished to stimulate the me ries of the children in his Sunday school. To this end he offered two prizes, the first to pupils over and the other to pupils under twelve who during an interval of three months would learn to recite the greatest number of verses from the Bible. A committee was appointed to hear the contestants for the prize and register the number of verses memorized.

The first prize was taken by a young girl of sixteen who had committed to memory during this interval of ninety days 12,225 verses of Scripture. These passages covered the entire New Teatanfent with the exception of two genealogies and included liberal selections from Psalms, Genesis and other parts of the Old Testament. The winner of the second prize was a little sister of the other prize winner, a child of eleven years. She had learned 715 verses. During the contest some 19,000 verses were memorized.

Miss Louisa M. Alcott was once visiting in a small town in Connecticut in which only a few days before an exceedingly small child had been born. In the course of conversation the child was spoken of and Miss Alcott laughingly said: "I have heard that I was a very small infant. In fact, tradition says that I could be put in a quart tankard and the cover replaced." One old lady, who had been listening attentively, then asked, sympathetically: "And did you live?"

HIGH CLASS DRUGGISTS AND - OTHERS.

The better class of druggists, everywhere, are men of scientific attainments and high integrity, who devote their lives to the welfare of their fellow men in supplying the best of remedies and purest medicinal agents of known value, in accordance with physicians' prescriptions and scientific formula. Druggists of the better class manufacture many excellent remedies, but always under original or officinal names and they never sell false brands, or imitation medicines. They are the men to deal with when in need of anything in their line, which usually includes all standard remedies and corresponding adjuncts of a first-class pharmacy and the finest and best of toilet articles and preparations and many useful accessories and remedial appliances. The earning of a fair living, with the satisfaction which arises from a knowledge of the benefits conferred upon their patrons and assistance to the medical profession, is usually their greatest reward for long years of study and many hours of daily toil. They all know that Syrup of Figs is an excellent laxative remedy and that it gives universal satisfaction, and therefore they are selling many millions of bottles annually to the well informed purchasers of the choice remedies, and they always take pleasure in handing out the genuine article bearing the full name of the Company-California Fig Syrup Co.-printed on the front of every package. They know that in cases of colds and headaches attended by biliousness and constipation and of weakness or torpidity of the liver and bowels, arising from irregular habits, indigestion, or over-eating, that there is no other remedy so pleasant, prompt and beneficial in its effects as Syrup of Figs, and they are glad to sell it because it gives universal satisfaction.

Owing to the excellence of Syrup of Figs, the universal satisfaction which it gives and the immense demand for it, imitations have been made, tried and condemned, but there are individual druggists to be found, here and there, who do not maintain the dignity and principles of the profession and whose greed gets the better of their judgment, and who do not hesitate to recommend and try to sell the imitations in order to make a larger profit. Such preparations sometimes have the name—" Syrup of Figs"—or "Fig Syrup" and of some piratical concern, or fictitious fig syrup company, printed on the package, but they never have the full name of the Company—California Fig Syrup Co.—printed on the front of the package. The imitations should be rejected because they are injurious to the system. In order to sell the imitations they find it necessary to resort to misrepresentation or deception, and whenever a dealer passes off on a customer a preparation under the name of "Syrup of Figs" or "Fig Syrup," which does not bear the full name of the California Fig Syrup Co. printed on the front of the package, he is attempting to decay and miglest the restriction. he is attempting to deceive and mislead the patron who has been so unfortunate as to enter his establishment, whether it be large or small, for if the dealer resorts to misrepresentation and and deception in one case he will do so with other medicinal agents, and in the filling of physicians' prescriptions, and should be avoided by every one who values health and happiness. Knowing that the great majority of druggists are reliable, we supply the immense demand for our excellent remedy entirely through the druggists, of whom it may be purchased everythere in original makes and the contract of the co where, in original packages only, at the regular price of fifty cents per bottle, but as exceptions exist it is necessary to inform the public of the facts, in order that all may decline or return any imitation which may be sold to them. If it does not bear the full name of the Company—California Fig Syrup Co.—printed on the front of every package, do not hesitate to return the article and to demand the return of your money, and in future go to one of the better class of druggists who will sell you what you wish and the best of everything in his line at reasonable prices.
